Parks & Recreation

1982 · ARTICLE · INDEX

S·U·B·J·E·C·T · INDEX ·

ARTS

Giant Step Forward for the Arts in Leisure, A, Barry Mangum, July, page 30.
Roger Medearis, Turning Life Into Art, M. Stephen Doherty, July, page 32.
Sunnyvale's Guidelines for Cultural Arts Programming Success, Susan Manning and John G. Williams, July, page 26.

CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT

Making Fun of Work, Larry N. Foster and Debbie Derus, June, page 44.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Collective Bargaining and Recreation and Park Operations, David Culkin and Dennis R. Howard, October, page 58.

COMMUNICATIONS

Develop Your Staff's Communications Skills With a Toastmaster's Club, February, page 44.
Listen Here! Ed Walsh, July, page 38.

COMPUTERS

Let Your Computer Do the Calculating, Christine Z. Howe, January, page 70.
Visitor Surveys: A Snap With a Computer, Don L. Cheek, April, page 55.

CONGRESS FOR RECREATION AND PARKS

Louisville Congress: Where Leisure Relates to All, The 1982, September, page 44.
Louisville, Where Preservation and Expansion Harmonize, June, page 29.
NRPA Congress Focuses on Future of Recreation and Parks, The 1981, January, page 36.

CONSERVATION

New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, Christopher N. Brown, June, page 36.
Once and Future Park, The, Walter A. Jones, March, page 62.
Open Letter to Park and Recreation Advocates, An, Meg Maguire, November, page 44.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS

Inter-Agency Cooperation—Stretching Your Budget to Include Disabled, Chris Hahn and John Ross, December, page 42.
Linking the Hospital and the Local Recreation Agency, Bonnie Laudick, John McGovern, and Susan Cosgrove, April, page 44.
New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, Christopher N. Brown, June, page 36.
USTA-Michelob Light League Tennis: A Program Worth Looking Into, Dave Matthews, January, page 64.

EDUCATION

Complementary Curricula: Tourism and Recreation, Richard L. Howell, November, page 34.
Perspective: The Preparation of Recreation and Leisure Professionals, A, David L. Groves, December, page 44.
Ranking the Top 10 Education Institutions Is Nothing More Than Idle Gossip, Peter A. Witt, January, page 73.

EVALUATION

Conference Evaluation Pays—In Quality and Attendance, Norma J. Stumbo, August, page 38.

Parks & Recreation

1982 · ARTICLE · INDEX

S·U·B·J·E·C·T · INDEX ·

ARTS

Giant Step Forward for the Arts in Leisure, A, Barry Mangum, July, page 30.
Roger Medearis, Turning Life Into Art, M. Stephen Doherty, July, page 32.
Sunnyvale's Guidelines for Cultural Arts Programming Success, Susan Manning and John G. Williams, July, page 26.

CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT

Making Fun of Work, Larry N. Foster and Debbie Derus, June, page 44.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Collective Bargaining and Recreation and Park Operations, David Culkin and Dennis R. Howard, October, page 58.

COMMUNICATIONS

Develop Your Staff's Communications Skills With a Toastmaster's Club, February, page 44.
Listen Here! Ed Walsh, July, page 38.

COMPUTERS

Let Your Computer Do the Calculating, Christine Z. Howe, January, page 70.
Visitor Surveys: A Snap With a Computer, Don L. Cheek, April, page 55.

CONGRESS FOR RECREATION AND PARKS

Louisville Congress: Where Leisure Relates to All, The 1982, September, page 44.
Louisville, Where Preservation and Expansion Harmonize, June, page 29.
NRPA Congress Focuses on Future of Recreation and Parks, The 1981, January, page 36.

CONSERVATION

New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, Christopher N. Brown, June, page 36.
Once and Future Park, The, Walter A. Jones, March, page 62.
Open Letter to Park and Recreation Advocates, An, Meg Maguire, November, page 44.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS

Inter-Agency Cooperation—Stretching Your Budget to Include Disabled, Chris Hahn and John Ross, December, page 42.
Linking the Hospital and the Local Recreation Agency, Bonnie Laudick, John McGovern, and Susan Cosgrove, April, page 44.
New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, Christopher N. Brown, June, page 36.
USTA-Michelob Light League Tennis: A Program Worth Looking Into, Dave Matthews, January, page 64.

EDUCATION

Complementary Curricula: Tourism and Recreation, Richard L. Howell, November, page 34.
Perspective: The Preparation of Recreation and Leisure Professionals, A, David L. Groves, December, page 44.
Ranking the Top 10 Education Institutions Is Nothing More Than Idle Gossip, Peter A. Witt, January, page 73.

EVALUATION

Conference Evaluation Pays—In Quality and Attendance, Norma J. Stumbo, August, page 38.

Evaluate Programs by Measuring Participant Satisfactions, J. Robert Rossman, June, page 33.
Evaluation Approach That Measures Human Reactions, An, Margie Kenner, July, page 34.
Evaluation by Design, Gary Ellis and Peter Witt, February, page 40.
Evaluation's Critical Role in Agency Accountability, Peggy Connolly, February, page 34.
Interactionist Evaluators Look for "What Is" Not "What Should Be," Charles C. Bullock, February, page 37.
Intrinsic Motivation—An Overlooked Basis for Evaluation, Seppo E. Iso-Ahola, February, page 32.
Portland's Program Planning & Evaluation Model, Judith Woo and Michael Farley, April, page 50.
Practical Approaches for Learning How to Evaluate, Peggy Hutchison and Roger C. Mannell, September, page 74.

FINANCE & BUDGET

Contracting for Services: A Valid Response to Fiscal Conservancy, Ronald F. Paige, November, page 54.
Creative Management of Recreational Services, The, Roger L. Kemp and Marty Feliciano, October, page 54.
Economics of Racquetball: Can Your Agency Afford a Court? The, Clarence M. Girtch, October, page 47.
Economics of Urban Parks: A Benefit/Cost Analysis, The, Thomas A. More, Thomas Stevens, and P. Geoffrey Allen, August, page 31.

FITNESS

Cardiac Wellness Training: A New Direction for Park and Recreation Professionals, Patrick Long and Lorraine Zinn, December, page 38.
Fitness Coalition's Plan for Action, The, Matthew Guidry, December, page 33.
Fitness Through Recreation—A National Commitment, Joseph W. Halper, December, page 35.
Heritage of Physical Fitness, A, Charles E. Hartsoe, December, page 30.
Wells Fargo's Goal: Fitness Trails to Crisscross America, Diane Miller, December, page 24.

FUTURE

Future Perspectives II: The 1980s and Beyond, David E. Gray and Seynour Greben, May, page 52.
Some Straight Talk on User Fees, Mike Ellerbrock, January, page 59.

INDOOR RECREATION

Economics of Racquetball: Can Your Agency Afford a Court? The, Clarence M. Girtch, October, page 47.

LEGAL

Leasing Public Facilities to Private Concerns: Some Legal Checkpoints, James Kozlowski, May, page 58.

LIABILITY

Legal Liability: The Role of the Expert Witness, Neil J. Dougherty, January, page 68.
'Negligence' Buck Stops With You!, The, James F. Stern, April, page 38.

LIGHTING

Guidelines for Recreation and Athletic Field Lighting, Joe P. Crookham, June, page 23.
Relighting—The No-Cost Improvement, Jeanie Bieri, June, page 20.

MAINTENANCE

How to Save Money With a Natural Golf Course, William W. Amick, March, page 48.
"KISS" Approach to Routine Maintenance, The, Robert E. Sternloff, March, page 52.
Maintenance Management Plan: It Can Be Done!, A, Carl Fisher, March, page 50.
Maintenance Trends for the 80s, Ron Donahue, May, page 44.
"MOSS" Grows Successfully on the Blue Ridge Parkway, Jim Bentley and Chrystos Siderelis, March, page 42.

MANAGEMENT

Collective Bargaining and Recreation and Park Operations, David Culkin and Dennis R. Howard, October, page 58.
Conference at Your Fingertips Without Costly Trips, A, John B. Tidwell, Jr., August, page 40.
Creative Management of Recreational Services, The, Roger L. Kemp and Marty Feliciano, October, page 54.
Let Your Commuter Do the Calculating, Christine Z. Howe, January, page 70.
Managerial Woman in Parks and Recreation, The, Pamela Leigh, October, page 40.
New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, Christopher N. Brown, June, page 36.
Reduce Stress and Increase Effectiveness Through Time Management, Joseph J. Bannon, November, page 38.
Risk Management: A Tool for Park and Recreation Administrators, Ralph A. Nilson and Christopher R. Edginton, August, page 34.

MARKETING

Gift Catalogs—The Marketing Technique for New Revenue Sources, Rick Dodge, August, page 22.
Making Community Swimming Pools Profitable, Charles M. Graves, April, page 30.
Why Can't I Get a Beer When I Go to the Recreation Center? John L. Crompton, August, page 26.

MISCELLANEOUS

PARKS & RECREATION 1981 Article Index, January, page 108.
PARKS & RECREATION 1982 Buyers' Guide, January, page 83.

NRPA LAW REVIEW

Courts Frown on Liability Release Agreements, June, page 48.
Equal Employment Opportunity Regulations Govern Validity of Personnel Selection Standards, February, page 18.
Handicapped Athletes' "Qualified" Right to Participate, April, page 17.
Mandatory Dedication for Public Parks: Some Critical Factors, September, page 29.
Municipal Competition with Private Enterprise Must Satisfy Public Purpose Test, December, page 18.
Section 1983 Civil Rights Liability for Public Park and Recreation Agencies, November, page 24.
State Law Authorizes Taxation for Municipal Park Development, July, page 21.
State Licensing May Regulate Leisure Therapy/Counseling, January, page 22.
Statutes Dictate Public Contracting Requirements, October, page 28.
Suing the United States for Injuries on Federal Recreation Sites, August, page 17.
Surplus Federal Property for Parks Program in Review, May, page 32.
Validity of Nonresident and Other Discriminatory Regulations in Municipal Recreation, March, page 28.

PARK DEVELOPMENT

Development Is Not a Dirty Word, Nathan Edelson, October, page 52.

PLANNING

Projecting the Need for New Sports Facilities: A Case Report, Glenn Wade, July, page 40.
Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, Geoffrey Godbey, Arthur Patterson, and Laura Brown-Szwak, April, page 46.

PLAY

Adventure Playgrounds: The American Experience, Bill Vance, September, page 67.
It's Time for Creative Play, Jay Beckwith, September, page 58.
Parks and Playgrounds as Adjunct Classrooms, George S. Poole and Barbara L. Poole, September, page 63.

PLAYGROUNDS

Adventure Playgrounds: The American Experience, Bill Vance, September, page 67.
It's Time for Creative Play, Jay Beckwith, September, page 58.
Parks and Playgrounds as Adjunct Classrooms, George S. Poole and Barbara Poole, September, page 63.

PRIVATE RECREATION

Club Med—At the Forefront of the Tourism Market, Martha Nudel, November, page 30.
Contracting for Services: A Valid Response to Fiscal Conservancy, Ronald F. Paige, November, page 54.

PROFESSIONALISM

Managerial Woman in Park and Recretion, The, Pamela Leigh, October, page 40.
Perspective: The Preparation of Recreation and Leisure Professionals, A, David L. Groves, December, page 44.

PROGRAMMING

Create Your Own Haunted House—Only $5.69, Susan A. Weston, September, page 72.
It Worked in Southfield—Seniors' Successful Food Co-op, Kevin J. Greene, March, page 57.
Let's Take a Risk With Adventure Recreation, Stewart Allen and Joel F. Meier, February, page 47.
Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, Geoffrey Godbey, Arthur Patterson, and Laura Brown-Szwak, April, page 46.
Once and Future Park, The, Walter A. Jones, March, page 62.
Open Letter to Park and Recreation Advocates, An, Meg Maguire, November, page 44.
People Today: Withdrawing, Coping, Adapting, Seppo E. Iso-Ahola, May, page 62.
Perspective: The Preparation of Recreation and Leisure Professionals, A, David L. Groves, December, page 44.

Ranking the Top 10 Education Institutions Is Nothing More Than Idle Gossip, Peter A. Witt, January, page 73.

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Open Letter to Park and Recreation Advocates, An, Meg Maguire, November, page 44.

SPECIAL POPULATIONS

Inter-Agency Cooperation—Stretching Your Budget to Include Disabled, Chris Hahn and John Ross, December, page 42.
It Worked in Southfield—Seniors' Successful Food Co-op, Kevin J. Greene, March, page 57.
Linking the Hospital and the Local Recreation Agency, Bonnie Laudick, John McGovern, and Susan Cosgrove, April, page 44.
Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, Geoffrey Godbey, Arthur Patterson, and Laura Brown-Szwak, April, page 46.
Singles, A Large (and Largely Ignored) Target Population, Richard Kraus, May, page 48.

SPORTS

Hershey Program—More Than a Track Meet, The, Kathi Nyhan, May, page 67.
Let's Take a Risk With Adventure Recreation, Stewart Allen and Joel F. Meier, February, page 47.
Projecting the Need for New Sports Facilities: A Case Report, Glenn Wade, July, page 40.
USTA-Michelob Light League Tennis: A Program Worth Looking Into, Dave Matthews, January, page 64.

SWIMMING POOLS

Making Community Swimming Pools Profitable, Charles M. Graves, April, page 30.
Negligence' Buck Stops With You!, The, James F. Stern, April, page 38.
Take the Headache Out of Cleaning Your Municipal Pools, Mike Mahoney, April, page 35.

TOURISM

Club Med—At the Forefront of the Tourism Market, Martha Nudel, November, page 30.
Complementary Curricula: Tourism and Recreation, Richard L. Howell, November, page 34.

TRENDS

Future Perspectives II: The 1980s and Beyond, David E. Gray and Seymour Greben, May, page 52.
Leasing Public Facilities to Private Concerns: Some Legal Checkpoints, James Kozlowski, May, page 58.
Maintenance Trends for the 80s, Ron Donahue, May, page 44.
People Today: Withdrawing, Coping, Adapting, Seppo E. Iso-Ahola, May, page 62.
Singles, A Large (and Largely Ignored) Target Population, Richard Kraus, May, page 48.

URBAN PARKS

Economics of Urban Parks: A Benefit/Cost Analysis, The, Thomas A. More, Thomas Stevens, and P. Geoffrey Allen. August, page 31.

VIEWPOINT

Development Is Not a Dirty Word, Nathan Edelson, October, page 52.
Future Perspectives II: The 1980s and Beyond, David E. Gray and Seymour Greben, May, page 52.

VOLUNTEERS

Making Fun of Work, Larry N. Foster and Debbie Derus, June, page 44.

WASHINGTON SCENE

Assessing America's Recreation Future: Some Perspectives on Process, January, page 16.
Dealing With the "Threats," April, page 8.
GAO Recommends National Park Entrance Fee Increases, October, page 12.
Local Governments Must Now Contend with Threat of Federal Antitrust Liability, December, page 8.
Marketplace or Political Determination for Federal Lands Policy, August, page 8.
NRPA Recreation Policy Initiative: One Theme Among Many on Federalism Review, February, page 12.
Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Act Revisited: The 1958-1962 Review Provides Guidance for the Present, March, page 16.
Outlook and Advocacy for State LWCF Funds in Fiscal 1983, July, page 14.
Proposed Federal Policy Encourages Land Acquisition Alternatives, June, page 14.
Pursuing the Benefits of "Surplus" Real Estate, May, page 20.
Senate Bills Would Limit Municipal Liability Under Civil Rights Statute, November, page 16.
Supreme Court Lowers Standard for "Appropriate Education" of Handicapped, September, page 20.

T·I·T·L·E
• INDEX •

Adventure Playgrounds: The American Experience, Bill Vance, September, page 67.

Cardiac Wellness Training: A New Direction for Park and Recreation Professionals, Patrick Long and Lorraine Zinn, December, page 38.

Club Med-At the Forefront of the Tourism Market, Martha Nudel, November, page 30.

Complementary Curricula: Tourism and Recreation, Richard L. Howell, November, page 34.

Conference at Your Fingertips Without Costly Trips, A, John B. Tidwell, Jr., August, page 40.

Conference Evaluation Pays—In Quality and Attendance, Norma J. Stumbo, August, page 38.

Contracting for Services: A Valid Response to Fiscal Conservancy, Ronald F. Paige, November, page 54.

Create Your Own Haunted House—Only $5.69, Susan A. Weston, September, page 72.

Creative Management of Recreational Services, The, Rober L. Kemp and Marty Feliciano, October, page 54.

Collective Bargaining and Recreation and Park Operations, David Culkin and Dennis R. Howard, October, page 58.

Develop Your Staff's Communication Skills With a Toastmaster's Club, Barry D. Mangum, February, page 44.

Development Is Not a Dirty Word, Nathan Edelson, October, page 52.

Economics of Racquetball: Can Your Agency Afford a Court? The, Clarence M. Girtch, October, page 47.

Economics of Urban Parks: A Benefit/Cost Analysis, The, Thomas A. More, Thomas Stevens, and P. Geoffrey Allen, August, page 31.

Evaluate Programs by Measuring Participant Satisfactions, J. Robert Rossman, June, page 33.

Evaluation Approach That Measures Human Reactions, An, Margie Kenner, July, page 34.

Evaluation by Design, Gary Ellis and Peter Witt, February, page 40.

Evaluation's Critical Role in Agency Accountability, Peggy Connolly, February, page 34.

Fitness Coalition's Plan for Action, The, Matthew Guidry, December, page 33.

Fitness Through Recreation—A National Commitment, Joseph W. Halper, December, page 35.

Future Perspectives II: The 1980s and Beyond, David E. Gray and Seymour Greben, May, page 52.

Giant Step Forward for the Arts in Leisure, A, Barry Mangum, July, page 30.

Gift Catalogs—The Marketing Technique for New Revenue Sources, Rick Dodge, August, page 22.

Guidelines for Recreation and Athletic Field Lighting, Joe P. Crookham, June, page 23.

Heritage of Physical Fitness, A, Charles E. Hartsoe, December, page 30.

Hershey Program—More Than a Track Meet, The, Kathi Nyhan, May, page 67.

How to Save Money With a Natural Golf Course, William W. Amick, March, page 48.

Interactionist Evaluators Look for "What Is" Not "What Should Be," Charles C. Bullock, February, page 37.

Inter-Agency Cooperation—Stretching Your Budget to Include Disabled, Chris Hahn and John Ross, December, page 42.

Intrinsic Motivation—An Overlooked Basis for Evaluation, Seppo E. Iso-Ahola, February, page 32.

It's Time for Creative Play, Jay Beckwith, September, page 58.

It Worked in Southfield—Seniors' Successful Food Co-op, Kevin J. Greene, March, page 57.

"KISS" Approach to Routine Maintenance, The, Robert E. Sternloff, March, page 52.

Leasing Public Facilities to Private Concerns: Some Legal Checkpoints, James Kozlowski, May, page 58.

Legal Liability: The Role of the Expert Witness, Neil J. Dougherty, January, page 68.

Let's Take a Risk With Adventure Recreation!, Stewart Allen and Joel F. Meier, February, page 47.

Let Your Computer Do the Calculating, Christine Z. Howe, January, page 70.

Linking the Hospital and the Local Recreation Agency, Bonnie Laudick, John McGovern, and Susan Cosgrove, April, page 44.

Listen Here! Ed Walsh, July, page 38.

Louisville Congress; Where Leisure Relates to All, The 1982, September, page 44.

Louisville, Where Preservation and Expansion Harmonize, June, page 29.

Maintenance Management Plan: It Can Be Done, A, Carl Fisher, March, page 50.

Maintenance Trends for the 80s, Ron Donahue, May, page 44.

Making Community Swimming Pools Profitable, Charles M. Graves, April, page 30.

Making Fun of Work, Larry N. Foster and Debbie

Derus, June, page 44.
Managerial Woman in Parks and Recreation, The, Pamela Leigh, October, page 40.
"MOSS" Grows Successfully on the Blue Ridge Parkway, Jim Bentley and Chrystos Siderelis, March, page 42.
'Negligence' Buck Stops With You!, The, James F. Stern, April, page 38.
New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, Christopher Brown, June, page 36.
NRPA Congress Focuses on Future of Recreation and Parks, The 1981, January, page 36.
Once and Future Park, The, Walter A. Jones, March, page 62.
Open Letter to Park and Recreation Advocates, An, Meg Maguire, November, page 44.
PARKS & RECREATION 1981 Article Index, January, page 108.
PARKS & RECREATION 1982 Buyers' Guide, January, page 83.
Parks and Playgrounds as Adjunct Classrooms, George S. Poole and Barbara L. Poole, September, page 63.
People Today: Withdrawing, Coping, Adapting, Seppo E. Iso-Ahola, May, page 62.
Perspective: The Preparation of Recreation and Leisure Professionals, A, David L. Groves, December, page 44.
Portland's Program Planning & Evaluation Model, Judith Woo and Michael Farley, April, page 50.
Practical Approaches for Learning How to Evaluate, Peggy Hutchison and Roger C. Mannell, September, page 74.
Projecting the Need for New Sports Facilities: A Case Report, Glenn Wade, July, page 40.
Ranking the Top 10 Education Institutions Is Nothing More Than Idle Gossip, Peter A. Witt, January, page 73.
Reduce Stress and Increase Effectiveness Through Time Management, Joseph J. Bannon, November, page 38.
Relighting—The No-Cost Improvement, Jeanie Bieri, June, page 20.
Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, Geoffrey Godbey, Arthur Patterson, and Laura Brown-Szwak, April, page 46.
Risk Management: A Tool for Park and Recreation Administrators, Ralph A. Nilson and Christopher R. Edginton, August, page 34.
Roger Medearis, Turning Life Into Art, M. Stephen Doherty, July, page 32.
Singles, A Large (and Largely Ignored) Target Population, Richard Kraus, May, page 48.
Some Straight Talk on User Fees, Mike Ellerbrock, January, page 59.
Sunnyvale's Guidelines for Cultural Arts Programming Success, Susan Manning and John G. Williams, July, page 26.
Take the Headache Out of Cleaning Your Municipal Pools, Mike Mahoney, April, page 35.
USTA-Michelob Light League Tennis: A Program Worth Looking Into, Dave Matthews, January, page 64.
Visitor Surveys: A Snap With a Computer, Don L. Cheek, April, page 55.
Wells Fargo's Goal: Fitness Trails to Crisscross America, Diane Miller, December, page 24.
Why Can't I Get a Beer When I Go to the Recreation Center? John L. Crompton, August, page 26.

A·U·T·H·O·R • INDEX •

Allen, P. Geoffrey, The Economics of Urban Parks: A Benefit/Cost Analysis, August, page 31.
Allen, Stewart, Let's Take a Risk With Adventure Recreation, February, page 47.
Amick, William W., How to Save Money with a Natural Golf Course, March, page 48.
Bannon, Joseph J., Reduce Stress and Increase Effectiveness Through Time Management, November, page 38.
Beckwith, Jay, It's Time for Creative Play, September, page 58.
Bentley, Jim, "MOSS" Grows Successfully on the Blue Ridge Parkway, March, page 42.
Bieri, Jeanie, Relighting—The No-Cost Improvement, June, page 20.
Brown, Christopher N., New Handshakes: Management Partnerships Along the Appalachian Trail, June, page 36.
Brown-Szwak, Laura, Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, April, page 46.
Bullock, Charles C., Interactionist Evaluators Look for "What Is" Not "What Should Be," February, page 37.
Cheek, Don L., Visitor Surveys: A Snap With a Computer, April, page 55.
Connolly, Peggy, Evaluation's Critical Role in Agency Accountability, February, page 34.

Cosgrove, Susan, Linking the Hospital and the Local Recreation Agency, April, page 44.
Crompton, John L., Why Can't I Get a Beer When I Go to the Recreation Center?, August, page 26.
Crookham, Joe P., Guidelines for Recreation and Athletic Field Lighting, June, page 23.
Culkin, David, Collective Bargaining and Recreation and Park Operations, October, page 58.
Derus, Debbie, Making Fun of Work, June, page 44.
Dodge, Rick, Gift Catalogs—The Marketing Technique for New Revenue Sources, August, page 22.
Doherty, M., Stephen, Roger Medearis, Turning Life Into Art, July, page 32.
Donahue, Ron, Maintenance Trends for the 80s, May, page 44.
Dougherty, Neil J., Legal Liability: The Role of the Expert Witness, January, page 68.
Edelson, Nathan, Development Is Not a Dirty Word, October, page 52.
Edington, Christopher R., Risk Management: A Tool for Park and Recreation Administrators, August, page 34.
Ellerbrock, Mike, Some Straight Talk on User Fees, January, page 59.
Ellis, Gary, Evaluation by Design, February, page 40.
Farley, Michael, Portland's Program Planning & Evaluation Model, April, page 50.
Feliciano, Marty, The Creative Management of Recreational Services, October, page 54.
Fisher, Carl, A Maintenance Management Plan: It Can Be Done!, March, page 50.
Foster, Larry N., Making Fun of Work, June, page 44.
Girtch, Clarence M., The Economics of Racquetball: Can Your Agency Afford a Court?, October, page 47.
Godbey, Geoffrey, Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, April, page 46.
Gray, David E., Future Perspective II: The 1980s and Beyond, May, page 52.
Graves, Charles M., Making Community Swimming Pools Profitable, April, page 30.
Greben Seymour, Future Perspectives II: The 1980s and Beyond, May, page 52.
Greene, Kevin J., It Worked in Southfield—Seniors' Successful Food Co-op, March, page 57.
Groves, David L., A Perspective: The Preparation of Recreation and Leisure Professionals, December, page 44.
Guidry, Matthew, The Fitness Coalition's Plan for Action, December, page 33.
Hahn, Chris, Inter-Agency Cooperation—Stretching Your Budget to Include Disabled, December, page 42.
Halper, Joseph W., Fitness Through Recreation—A National Commitment, December, page 35.
Hartsoe, Charles E., A Heritage of Physical Fitness, December, page 30.
Howard, Dennis R., Collective Bargaining and Recreation and Park Operations, October, page 58.
Howe, Christine Z., Let Your Computer Do the Calculating, January, page 70.
Howell, Richard L., Complementary Curricula: Tourism and Recreation, November, page 34.
Hutchison, Peggy, Practical Approaches for Learning How to Evaluate, September, page 74.
Iso-Ahola, Seppo E., Intrinsic Motivation—An Overlooked Basis for Evaluation, February, page 32.
Iso-Ahola, Seppo E., People Today: Withdrawing, Coping, Adapting, May, page 62.
Jones, Walter, A., The Once and Future Park, March, page 62.
Kemp, Roger L., The Creative Management of Recreational Services, October, page 54.
Kenner, Margie, An Evaluation Approach That Measures Human Reactions, July, page 34.
Kozlowski, James, Leasing Public Facilities to Private Concerns: Some Legal Checkpoints, May, page 58.
Kraus, Richard, Singles, A Large (and largely Ignored) Target Population, May, page 48.
Laudick, Bonnie, Linking the Hospital and the Local Agency, Recreation Agency, April, page 44.
Leigh, Pamela, The Managerial Woman in Parks and Recreation, October, page 40.
Long Patrick, Cardiac Wellness Training: A New Direction for Park and Recreation Professionals, December, page 38.
Maguire, Meg, An Open Letter to Park and Recreation Advocates, November, page 44.
Mahoney, Mike, Take the Headache Out of Cleaning Your Municipal Pools, April, page 35.
Mangum, Barry, A Giant Step Forward for the Arts in Leisure, July, page 30.
Mangum, Barry D., Develop Your Staff's Communication Skills With a Toastmaster's Club, February, page 44.
Mannell, Roger C., Practical Approaches for Learning How to Evaluate, September, page 74.
Manning, Susan, Sunnyvale's Guidelines for Cultural Arts Programming Success, July, page 26.
Matthews, Dave, USTA-Michelob Light League Tennis: A Program Worth Looking Into, January, page 64.
McGovern, John, Linking the Hospital and the Local Recreation Agency, April, page 44.
Meier, Joel F., Let's Take a Risk With Adventure Recreation, February, page 47.
Miller, Diane, Wells Fargo's Goal: Fitness Trails to Crisscross America, December, page 24.
More, Thomas A., The Economics of Urban Parks: A Benefit/Cost Analysis, August, page 31.
Nilson, Ralph A., Risk Management: A Tool for Park and Recreation Administrators, August, page 34.

Nudel, Martha, Club Med—At the Forefront of the Tourism Market, November, page 30.
Nyhan, Kathi, The Hershey Program—More Than a Track Meet, May, page 67.
Paige, Ronald, F, Contracting for Services: A Valid Response to Fiscal Conservancy, November, page 54.
Patterson, Arthur, Rethinking Leisure Services in an Aging Population, April, page 46.
Poole, Barbara L., Parks and Playgrounds as Adjunct Classrooms, September, page 63.
Poole, George S., Parks and Playgrounds as Adjunct Classrooms, September, page 63.
Ross, John, Inter-Agency Cooperation—Stretching Your Budget to Include Disabled, December, page 42.
Rossman, J. Robert, Evaluate Programs by Measuring Participant Satisfactions, June, page 33.
Siderelis, Chrystos, "MOSS" Grows Successfully on the Blue Ridge Parkway, March, page 42.
Stern, James F., The 'Negligence' Buck Stops With You!, April, page 38.
Sternloff, Robert E., The "KISS" Approach to Routine Maintenance, March, page 52.
Stevens, Thomas, The Economics of Urban Parks: A Benefit/Cost Analysis, August, page 31.
Stumbo, Norma J., Conference Evaluation Pays—In Quality and Attendance, August, page 38.
Tidwell, John B., Jr., A Conference at Your Fingertips Wihtout Costly Trips, August, page 40.
Wade, Glenn, Projecting the Need for New Sports Facilities: A Case Report, July, page 40.
Walsh, Ed, Listen Here!, July, page 38.
Weston, Susan, A., Create Your Own Haunted House—Only $5.69, September, page 72.
Williams, John G., Sunnyvale's Guidelines for Cultural Arts Programming Success, July, page 26.
Witt, Peter, Evaluation by Design, February, page 40.
Witt, Peter A., Ranking the Top 10 Education Institutions Is Nothing More Than Idle Gossip, January, page 73.
Woo, Judith, Portland's Program Planning & Evaluation Model, April, page 50.
Zinn, Lorraine, Cardiac Wellness Training: A New Direction for Park and Recreation Professionals, December, page 38.

American Graffiti, No Problem!

Solid plastic toilet partitions, dressing and shower compartments. Poly Mar HD® answers all your needs where extreme high traffic exists. Will not rust, break, or delaminate. 10 year warranty.

Santana Products Co.
5663 S. Laburnum Ave., Richmond, VA 23231
TOLL FREE: 1-800-368-5002

Please circle reader service card number 64

C 20

0 3 2 E
1 2 5 3
2 2 3 E
3 3 E B
4 E 2 5
5 5 2 3
6 2 E 5